

Fire Doors

The high rise buildings & industrial establishments are divided into smaller compartments to keep fire confined within the compartment and to keep the escape route/lobbies/refuge areas free from smoke, heat and fire for safety of the occupants and assets.

Fire Doors provide such protection when installed as the access doors to such compartments.

■ Properties and special features

- Available in standard as well as customised sizes
- Available in single & double leaf configurations
- Sleek, fully flush and sturdy design with good aesthetics
- No visible welds
- Available in colour sheds as per customer requirements
- Totally asbestos free
- Prefabricated ready to install at site
- Provision of hardware as per customer requirement
- Available with fire rated vision panel glass as per customer requirement
- General purpose HMPS doors as per customer requirements also available
- Available with smoke seals & thresholds
- Premium quality stainless steel hardware items also available

■ Applications:

Hotels, malls, multiplexes, commercial buildings, hospitals, Metro rail stations, industrial units, IT establishments, refineries, power plants.

■ Technical Data

STEEL FIRE DOORS

Fire Rating : upto 180 minutes
Frame/Shutter Material : Galvanised Steel
Door Finish : Powder Coating or PU Paint

